DREW A REVOLVER AND THREATENED TO KILL HER

—Edith J. Close has commenced suit for divorce in the district court against A. E. Close, alleging cruelty as a cause of action. She married the defendant January 4, 1915, and avers that in the past year, the defendant, while under the influence of liquor, has been quarrelsome and intolerable. The plaintiff further states that on December 1, 1915, the defendant slapped her in the face and used vile and abusive language. She asks for costs of suit, attorney fees and reasonable alimony.

Mary C. Garneau is seeking divorce from Louis J. Garneau on the grounds of cruelty. She married the defendant August 23, 1909, and they have one child. The plaintiff alleges that in July, 1915, the defendant struck her, and that in March 1916, he drew a revolver and threatened her life. She asks for the care and custody of the minor child, costs of suit, attorney fees and alimony.

ON A VISIT FROM ELY, NEVADA

Mr. and Mrs. Edward V. Wright and children of Ely, Nevada, are visiting in Ogden at the homes of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Ware. They were formerly residents of Ogden, having moved to Ely about five months ago, where Mr. Wright is in charge of the manufacturing department of the White Pine Soda Bottling company's plant. Before leaving Ogden, Mr. Wright was foreman of the local plant of the Western Bottling company and was a well-known member of the Ogden Tabernacle choir.

Mrs. Wright and children will remain in Ogden several weeks and Mr. Wright will return to Nevada Saturday.

SHERIFF MUST PAY DAMAGES TO THE SHOEMAKER

Judge N. J. Harris today rendered the following decisions, the cases having been under consideration only a short time.

Eric P. Swanson of the Goodyear Shoe Repairing company vs. Thomas A. DeVine, Sheriff, et al. The court signs findings and decree as proposed by the plaintiff, with the exception that the value of the goods taken by the defendant is fixed at $500 and plaintiff's damages to be $12.50 per day.

Helen Livingston vs. B. F. Livingston. The court finds the issues in favor of the defendant and against the plaintiff.

Henry W. Gwilliam, et al vs. Ogden City. The court decides that the decree should enjoin the collection of the special tax levied upon plaintiffs' premises only as to the 10 per cent added by the city, the remainder of said tax being valid.

C. A. Conner vs. C. H. Smith, et al. Defendant's demurrer to plaintiff's complaint is overruled, defendant granted ten days within which to answer.

Salt Lake Lumber company vs. George T. Stephens, et al. Motion of defendant Lottie M. Stephens to quash the summons and to set aside the appearance of counsel for said defendant is granted.

Simrock, McFarland vs. Salt Lake & Ogden Railway company. Defendant's demurrer to plaintiff's amended complaint is sustained; plaintiff is granted ten days within which to further amend his complaint.

CHICAGO SHORT ON MILK SUPPLY

Chicago, April 6.—As a result of the strike of milk producers who furnish the milk supply of Chicago, the city today received only about one-third of its normal daily consumption of approximately 1,750,000 quarts, according to reports.

Reports from Elgin and other northern Illinois points, where milk is gathered, continued today to tell of clashes between pickets set by the strikers and producers.

Officials of the Milk Producers' association said today that several distributing companies had signed contracts at the higher price.

ATTEMPTED TO FORCE HIS WAY INTO A HOME

In the police court today, Gust Callas, a Greek, was convicted of battery and fined $15. The complaining witness was Frank Brodzik, and the offense was committed on April 4th, in a Grant avenue rooming house. Due to the revolting circumstances in the case, the courtroom was cleared while it was tried. Callas was arrested by Patrolman Richardson.

Brodzik was held as a witness. Nick Koos, a Greek, and Earl Maxwell, arrested on a similar charge, April 1st, forfeited bail, Koos leaving $5 and Maxwell $10 with the desk sergeant.

V. Ward and George Bond pleaded guilty to drunkenness and were each sentenced to pay a fine of $5 or to serve five days in jail.

S. P. Dunlap, a confessed "moocher," was given a ten-days' jail sentence.

George Dalton was found guilty of disturbing the peace, the witnesses for the prosecution being Mrs. Frances Kayser, Verma, Mazie and Howard Kayser. According to their testimony, Dalton attempted to force an entrance to the Kayser home and, falling, broke one of the front windows with a rock. He denied this, but admitted having been about "half drunk" on the night in question, April 4th. The sentence pronounced on the defendant was a $10 fine or ten days in jail.

INFORMAL RECEPTION. The reception tendered by Reverend Charles William Dean, superintendent of the Rocky Mountain district of the Christian church last Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. King was largely attended by members and friends of the church. The reception was informal and proved to be a delightful affair.

Pleasant features of the event were musical selections by Master Warren Welch on the violin, accompanied by Mrs. King at the piano and a short impromptu speech by F. J. Hendershot. He gave an interesting review of the early work of the Christian church in Ogden. Reverend Dean responded with an impressive talk on the present outlook for church workers here.

At the ladies' committee served a delectable repast. The tables were prettily decorated with bouquets of carnations and violets.

MINING STOCK DEAL CAUSE OF SUIT IN DISTRICT COURT

District Attorney John C. Davis today commenced suit against Robert A. Moyes, cashier of the Commercial National bank, for an accounting on a partnership transaction in the purchase of 25,000 shares of the capital stock of the Lake View Mining company.

The plaintiff alleges that he and the defendant agreed to purchase 25,000 shares of the mining stock at a figure not to exceed $15,000 and to sell the same at a profit, each to share alike in the profits. He states that on February 22, 1916, 25,000 shares of the stock were purchased from L. A. Friedman of Lovelock, Nevada, for $15,000. The stock was forwarded to the plaintiff, accompanied by a sight draft for $15,000 on the Commercial National bank, which was paid about February 24.

The plaintiff further alleges that soon after, the defendant advised him that he had sold the stock for $16,000, the plaintiff's share of the profits being $500, which was paid to him. He states, however, that the reported sale for $16,000 he believes was a misrepresentation and that the defendant sold 15,000 shares for $15,000, enough to pay off the draft and still retains 10,000 shares of the stock, which he considers worth $150 a share.

EAGLES ARE TO BUILD CLUB HOUSE ON GRANT AVENUE

Ogden lodge No. 118, Fraternal Order of Eagles, has completed plans for the erection of a club house on Grant avenue, between Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth streets, that will be a worthy monument to the progress of the order in this locality. The building will cost approximately $40,000 and will occupy ground space 57 by 137 feet, the location to be directly north and adjoining the new home of the Scoville Paper company and the Scoville Press and including the ground now covered by the Knight rooming house. It will be two stories high, with a full concrete basement, and the plans call for a gymnasium, lodge rooms, club rooms, and a large ballroom.

Following a meeting of the building committee of the lodge, which consists of Samuel Thomas, Thomas Leslie, William Doyle, Gus Thorn, Sr., and Joseph Carlson, it was announced that work on the new home would begin about May 1.

Italian War Report. "Rome, via London, April 5, 10-18 p. m.—The following official communication was issued today:

"In the Teutonic region and on the upper Adige there has been the customary artillery activity. In the Cristallo zone Monday night after intense artillery preparations, the enemy opened a fresh violent attack on our new positions on the Raichkofel. The attack was repulsed with heavy losses and the enemy left some prisoners in our hands.

"On the upper and middle Isonzo front there has been an intense artillery duel. Enemy detachments attempted to break our line east of Pod-sobotto, but were thrown back and dispersed.

Enemy airmen yesterday tried to reach Verona, but were promptly driven away. Other enemy aviators succeeded in throwing a few bombs on Bassano, killing two children. On the lower Isonzo and on the Lagune Grande similar aerial attempts were made and some bombs were thrown on hamlets. Our air squadrons drove the air attackers off. Two of the machines were seen to fall to the ground behind their lines."

London, April 5.—The British statement on the campaign in the west issued tonight follows:

"Last night we sprang mines successfully near Hullich and destroyed a hostile gallery and wrecked posts established in the old craters. Today we bombarded hostile works near Bois Grenier with good effect.

"About St. Eloi the artillery of both sides was very active. North of the Ypres-St. Julien road our heavy artillery carried out a successful bombardment, doing much damage to hostile trenches and causing numerous explosions."

Emperor Nicholas Indignant. Petrograd, April 6, via London, Emperor Nicholas has sent a telegram to the chief of the Red Cross service in which he expressed profound indignation over the sinking of the Russian hospital ship Portugal and declares that "the whole world should hear of this outrage."

HAUCOURT WAS STRONGLY HELD

Berlin, April 6, by wireless to Sayville.—"German newspapers comment on the capture of the village of Haucourt, northwest of Verdun, by German troops." "They point out that the village was exceedingly well fortified by all means of modern military art.

"While Haucourt held out the Germans could not cross Forges brook. For this reason the French defended it with the utmost tenacity."

RECRUITS FOR BRITISH ARMY

London, April 6, 4:05 p. m.—The whole question with reference to obtaining recruits for the army is under consideration by the cabinet and its decision will be announced before Easter, Premier Asquith announced in the house of commons this afternoon.

The premier's statement was made as a response to the agitation of married men that all single men should be called up before the married men enlist and the equally insistent demands of some political leaders that services be made compulsory for all men of military age.

The premier said the government was examining the figures of recruits obtainable under the present system and is estimating what additional number of recruits was necessary. Premier Asquith, who arrived from Italy, was bombarded with questions, but in most cases his replies were non-committal.

His answer with respect to recruiting is hardly calculated to satisfy the Unionist advocates of conscripting who demanded from Andrew Bonar Law, Unionist leader in the commons, an immediate decision, threatening to put a motion of want of confidence in case of an unsatisfactory reply.
